First Sight (June 22nd 2024, Saturday),

It was the first time in class 11th. I was with my friend Rounak, closest friend of mine. We were spending our day like usual doing giggles and shits. But then after the lunch break, around 12PM. I heard someone shouting, then my eyes fell on her. I saw her, sitting in the front bench with her friend, Ashwina. I was staring her from the last bench, her side faces her braided hair. Then mustered up the courage and told to my friend “Bhai, koii dikh gayi”. My friend started scanning the whole class, and his first guess “First bench wali?” , I was like “WTF!” , then he went on like “Right wali?” , I was like, “HAA BHAI WAHIII!”. Then he went on like “Sab janta hu bhai tere baare me”. Then to have some closer looks of her, I went to the front bench, in the other row ,in the next period. I was scared if I stare her for too long, she might feel weird or something so I made small sightings and turned my eyes away. Then it was the last two period, the games period, me will my other section friends were playing football, but the whole time my eyes were on her, what she was doing. Somehow the day ended. I was with my friend going back home wondering “Wo kis direction se ghar jati hai”. While going back home, the whole time my mind was like “Who she was” BECAUSE I LEGIT DIDN’T REMEMBER HER FACE AFTER GETTING OFF FROM SCHOOL! Then planned that next day I will reach school early and grab the bench behind her. But unfortunately, the next day was SUNDAY.

Rounak always used to tease me with the number of chances he used to get for talking to her. He always called her “didi” . Also he used to motivate me to go to school, whenever I didn’t want to. Rounak “Wo rahegi na 🧐”

PLANNING W ROUNAK (June 23rd 2024, Sunday),

Me and Rounak were planning to sit at the bench behind her. So, we concluded that we , especially I will go to school the earliest and grab the bench just behind her. Rounak himself said “uske piche bethenge”. Arpan sent me 3 numbers. Arpan shared the detail of every girl, like how I can identify the three girls himself. I legit had her number but was still confused if I really have her number. At home, me and my friend started finding for her number. Since she was in D Section in Class Xth, I asked my friend Arpan if he had her number. Obviously, not directly, I asked him “Bhai, Larkiyo ke number hai? Call bomb karna hai mujhe, kuch number bhej” Toh he did send number of two girls. One of them was … her… But I ddin’t realize that time because I couldn’t see any nickname it was just a profile picture with her number. But then later, Rounak started finding for her number in our class 12A group. HE FOUND HER NUMBER with the nickname “Divya Naryan 12A” , He shared me her number. I started staring her profile picture like an idiot. But yeah, her face was covered in the profile picture with her phone.

When it was finally night time , I was soo much excited yet scared of going to school the next day. Never had experienced such a feeling ever in my life. Rounak shared about my crush in our friends group, One of the friends said, “Crush hi banata phir” then Rounak added, “His choices aint that bad bhai”

Me and Rounak were planning to not go to school for JEE preparation but because I saw her, we went on Monday when we had planned not go before seeing her. I planned to go the whole week then taking offs for JEE.

HER FIRST SCOLD (June 24th, Monday),

Finally it was the day to implement the plan. I went to school early. I used to go to school at 6:45 or something but on today, I went to school early at 6:20AM. Just to grab the bench behind her. The whole time while going to school I was trying to remember her face, but couldn’t I was soo much anticipated and excited to see her again. When I finally reached the school. The main doors were closed because they open at 7AM and I had reached somewhere around 6:45. She came at 6:50. I saw her coming, she was looking so pretty and cute yaar. All my memories of her face came to me. She was standing on the other foot path and I was standing on the other. I was scared to look at her. The moment the main gate got open, I entered the school first and went into my classroom at first floor. Inside, I grabbed the seat behind her. But then she entered the classroom and scolded me “Ayi, wo mera seat hai”. I ACCIDENTALLY GRABBED THE WRONG SEAT. I misinterpreted with her seat and the seat behind her. I said “Sorry sorry” and went to the seat behind her. She came into the room, put her blue bag on her bench, put her pink bottle on the bench and went outside the classroom. FK mann, she was looking so pretty. Since, she was outside and nobody was inside, I too went outside the classroom just merely.. To see where she was… I climbed the second floor. And started finding her from a different position, saw her . She was just standing waiting for others to come. Then my friends came (Rounak and Arpan). I went to them and said “BHAI JALDI CHAL WO AGAYI HAI!”, Rounak placed his bag on my bench and Arpan on some other bench and then he too went outside. Rounak started mocking me “Dekh bhai, tere se pahle wo chance lelega”. We both waited 5 minutes for Arpan to come back into the class, but he didn’t. So, I went outside and saw him walking with her talking about something. That kinda… Okay no worries.

The class started filling up as everyone started coming. She too came back into the classroom.

In the first period, our class teacher circulated a paper on which we had to mark our attendance. The paper came to me. I wrote my attendance and my friend Rounaks’. Then passed it to her. “Hey”, she turned around, took the paper and kinda asked for a pen but the next millisecond she turned and took her pen. I was peaking to see her name. She wrote “Divya Narayan” and “Ashwina”, I got confused if her name was “Divya” or “Ashwina”.

The classes started running while the teachers were explaning Units and Dimensions, Sets , Mole concept , I was in her dimension of imaginations and concepts. I was staring her from behind. Just melting. Yeah, was focusing on the class as well but staring her was feeling soo awesome. I was soo much excited that I felt like dropping my pen intentionally and taking that pen from her hand .. But that felt kinda weird to do it. So, I didn't. The whole day we didn't have any conversations. Me , Rounak, Divya and Ashwina weren't having any conversation with each other. Meanwhile, Shrijit one of the boys of her section of class X, was having conversations with her the whole day, Rounak again started mocking me "Dekh bhai, uska jyada acha chance hai". I was like "Okay.. Fine… Maybe no worries"

Somehow, the day ended and again I was wondering from which direction does she go and while going back home, I again forgot how she looks. Said to Rounak "Kal bhi jayenge, aur uske piche bethenge" . Rounak happily agreed. As he was the wing man for me. Though he declined sometimes as we was scared if she would start doubting but at the end we planned to sit behind her only.

Then one incident, Tamal Sir was explaining about relationships, he pin pointed at my friend Rounak and said "TERI TOH EK BHI GIRLFRIEND NAHI HO SAKTI".

One day, Rounak forced me a lot to have a conversation with her, I always declined him but he always gave me topics to have a conversation with her face to face in school. So the next day, I decided to have a conversation with a planned topic, my heartbeat was beating so fast and I was soo much scared how she would react if she would think that I am creep , weird and etc etc. When I reached the school, She came early so she was going outside and I was just coming in. We had our first conversation on what our CS Sir meant by "Notebook acha rakhna".Then again the day went silent.

Again one day, we had some conversation, inside the classroom. This time, I reached to the school early and she a few secs late. She asked me my name , I replied to her.. Then I asked hers, though I already knew her name but still I did. Again the day went silent

I was seriously facing issues to have my meals. I could never complete my meal , just imaginations of her and excitement of school. Those butterfly feelings… I started waking up early every day for school, started actually caring for my facial and the way I looked than I did in my past.

I started reaching the school really early then before just to have the first sight of the day of her.I used to reach the school at 6:45 in rush and she used to come through bus at 6:50.

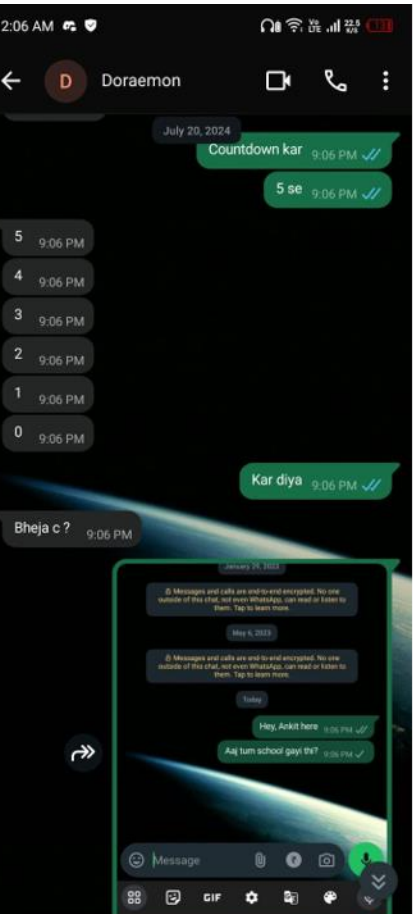

Whenever she came, she used to wave at me, this became a permanent schedule of everyday. Only she used to initiate this, I never did.

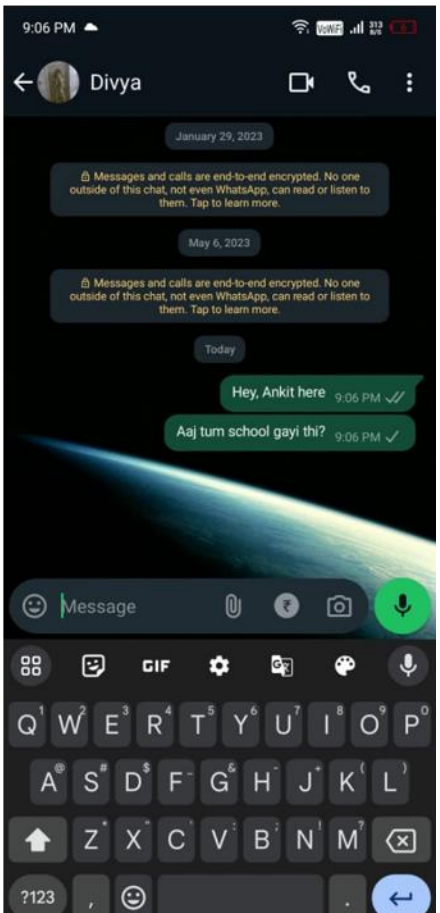

THE WHOLE MONTH WENT ONLY IN SILENCE AND TRYING OPPORTUNITIES TO HAVE CONVERSATIONS WITH HER , BUT EVERYTIME I COULDN'T HAVE MUCH COURAGE SO I HAD FAILED EVERYTIME.

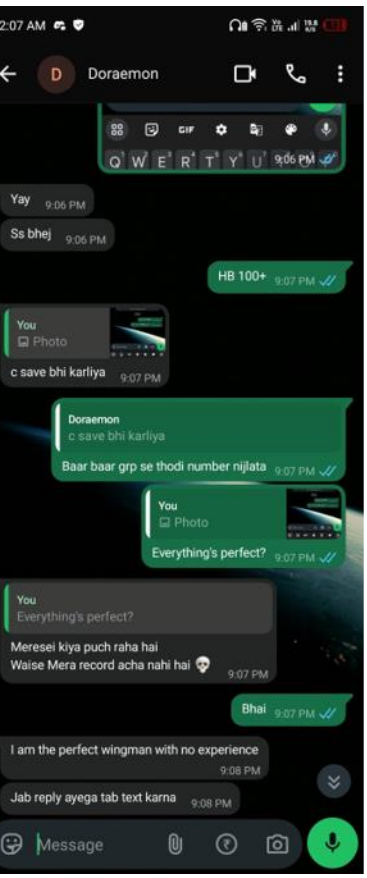

FIRST CONVERSATION WITH HER (JULY 20TH 2024),

Rounak forced me a lot to text her on WA, I always declined him but he forced me to. So, I did.

July 20th 2024, was a Saturday. And me and Rounak usually don't go to school on this date and we knew that she too wouldn't have gone to school as well. Still, to have a topic and talk on. Rounak forced me to ask for the days' work. My hands were literally shaking a lot, I couldn't even open her chat, I was soo scared. Asked Rounak to do a countdown before I do it. Rounak was doing his countdown but still I couldn't text her. But then got some guts. I wrote the message but didn't send , I asked Rounak if I should do it. HE SAID TO DO IT! I DID! And then closed the chat , closed WA. Closed everything and became a ball on my bed.

I started seeing her last seen, that means she had saved my number. I WAS SOO MUCH EXCITED WHEN SHE FINALLY SAVED MY NUMBER. Then saw that her last seen was getting updated every minute. Me and Rounak went into overthinking like “What if? She is texting Arpan about you” , “Koii pahle se BF?” and etc. The whole night I was stalking her last seen and telling that to Rounak out of excitement.

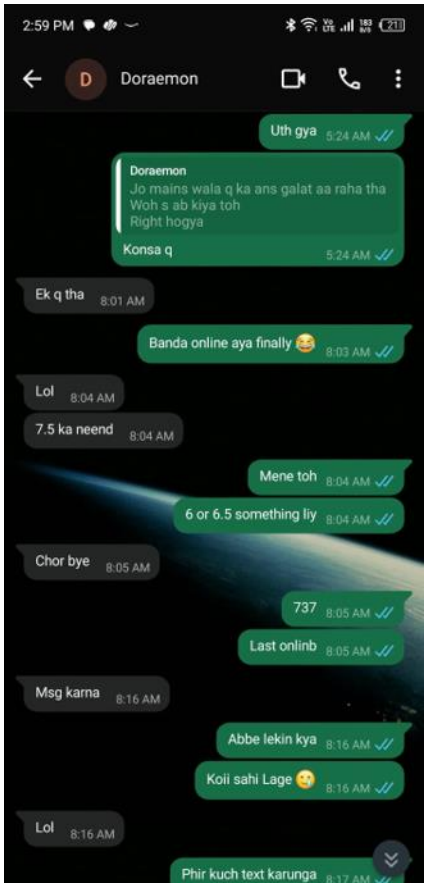

Time went by, Rounak started sharing about my crush in the whole class and it gradually started spreading all the four sections. First he told to my friends (Adrish) that I have a crush on a girl whose initial is “D”. I so much tried to stop Rounak from doing that because I was scared that if she got to know this, she would either slap me, block me , hate me or maybe hit me with her bottle. On the same day, Adrish came into the class in the lunch break. The class was kinda empty, it was just a few girls (including her) having t heir lunch together and me and my friends (Rounak, Adrish, Saptak, Misbah). Adrish announced like “idhar koii larki hai jiska naam D se start hota hai? Wo Ankit ki Crush hai”. I was totally traumatized and scared as I sat just behind her. A girl stood up and gave Adrish options like “Debosneha?”, “Dipanwita?” but didn’t take HER name. I was really scared by this. Then me with my friends left the class.

After this he started sharing about my crush to her class X section students like Aayush and Shrijit. Aayush said that I could never do it.

THE FIRST LONG CONVERSATION (July 21st 2024, SUNDAY),

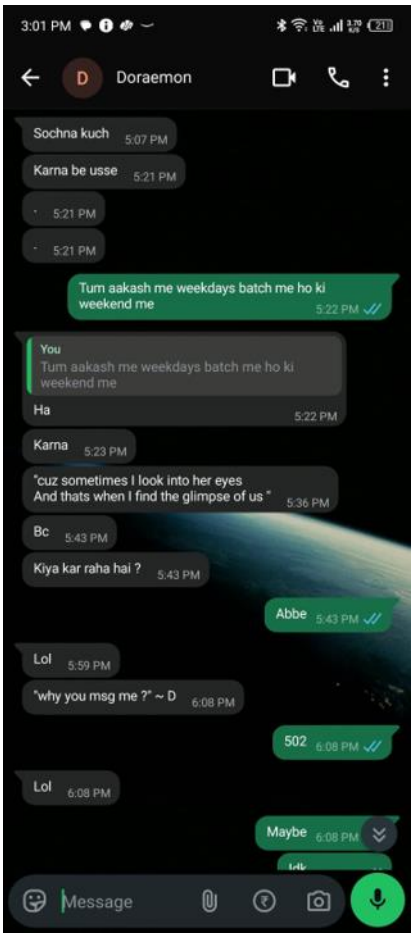

Rounak taught me to how to flirt with a girl. Then forced me a lot to text her. I was hesitating as I couldn’t get any valid topic to talk on without making it feel obvious. Then, Rounak Gave me a topic to talk.

In the conversation with her, Rounak after reading the conversation, he said that I was kinda showing her negative points, of her choice of choosing weekends batch for her Aakash batch which I shouldn't have said.

That was the first time when I got to know TTYL means "Talk To You Later"

ASKING FOR WORKS FROM HER AS EXCUSES TO TALK WITH HER (July, 2024),

Upon the forces of Rounak, I used to text her for the days work, she used to send me all the work and I used to complete all of them even when I didn't feel like. I had planned like, to get her I will first get familiar from her surroundings then I can have comfortable and clear roadway to her. So, I started talking to her friend , Ashwina at first then her.

One day, at the lunch break. Misbah, my friend came to my class and started inquiring whose name started with the initial "D" , he peaked into her bench, as I was sitting behind her. And saw one of her copies and read "Divya Narayan" then Misbah started yelling at me "BRO DIVYA NARAYAN HAI TERI CRUSH?!". She was out in the CS Lab.

FIRST CONVERSATION IN FACE TO FACE BETWEEN US (July 2024, Monday),

I really didn't want to come on this date, I felt really tired and didn't feel like coming to school but Rounak motivated me to come to school for "HER". I knew nothing new would happen in the school, Me and her would never any conversations in face to face as I could never gather the courage to with her on face to face. But ON THIS SPECIFIC DATE! SOMETHING MAGICAL HAPPENED!. Someone drew a moon on our bench. Her friend, Ashwina pointed that out and asked me and my friend Rounak who drew this such a beautiful Moon. We both replied "we don't know" and somehow we had conversation the whole dayyy. This went on for many days. She and her friend used to share stories , experiences and more.

We started so loud that everyone in the class started doubting us if we have a crush on each other or something. Rounak knew that I can now have conversations with her so he started separating kinda for me to have no interruptions and she only talks to me not with him. WINGMAN vibes. Class students started judging, rumors started spreading that I have a crush on her.

My WhatsApp about started being less poetic / introductory and more about music lyrics where I indirectly confessed my feelings for her. It was the only single way I had at that moment to kinda hint her what I feel for her. Some of them were “You already know what I feel for you”

“What if?”

“What if? I told you I like you”

“Look in my eyes, they’ll tell you the truth”

“What if? I fall”

“Theres nothing holding me back” (Reference, once in class she said that I looked like young Shawn mendes)

I put up a profile picture where I was looking away from the camera-

“Looking away, but always finding my way back to you”

“I am always there for you”

“Am I really crazy think ‘bout this together”

“your already the reason my heart beats…”

HER FIRST TEXT INITIATION (July 26, 2024)

Only I had been texting her for every conversation and she wasn’t. So, Rounak asked me to give up on her as she had been showing no interest. I did, I really gave up texting her. But on July 26, she texted me from her side, “Hey are you giving any olympiad” at 11:46PM. THAT TEXT GAVE ME SOO MUCH SHIVERS IN MY SPINE. I got overly excited after seeing that text and opened her chat to chat with her. The chat went on for around 25 minutes but that really worth it and meaningful. I couldn’t sleep that night. And when I woke up in the morning , out of excitement I texted Rounak about this. He was too happy for this.

THE FIRST WALK TOGETHER (30 JULY, 2024),

It was the last period and it was library. We all went to the library. I went a bit late with Rounak, after getting inside the library, I saw her and the sit beside her, it was empty and nobody was sitting there. I found my chance and sat on the sit just beside her and started discussing the English Sir’s questions and answers. Arpan tried diverting and disturbing me as he was sitting beside me. Rounak , turned his head away and tried that I don’t get interrupted between me and her conversation. Like this, the class went on and it ended. I tried continuing the conversation. Don’t know how she was soo much focused on my conversation that she didn’t look for her friend and started walking with me till the classroom. We had conversations on various topics, some of them were if she was on Instagram and etc. THERE, Arpan was kinda trying to interrupt me by walking along with me and her. She didn’t look behind for her friends rather kept walking with me till the classroom. I was so much nervous after this.

The school bell rang and it was time to go back home but fortunately it started to rain. I was with my friend Rounak, Rounak asked me not to take out the umbrella and find her and try to get inside her umbrella. We both tried finding for her, but we couldn't find her but after a very long we found her, I went running till her and got inside her umbrella. She asked me "Tum toh pura bheeg gaye ho" , I was like "ha thora sa" then she got onto her pool car and I went on with my friends. Rounak suggested "Tujhe pakarna chahiye uska chahta, jyada better lagta"

FIRST TIME UNDER THE SAME UMBRELLA (31 July, 2024),

Rounak didn't come on this date. I came to school alone. The day ended. It was raining really heavily. I got into my friend Ayush's Umbrella. I seriously didn't bring umbrella on this date. I tried finding her.

I found her along inside her umbrella. My friends started mocking me "DEKH BHAI AKELE CHAL RAHI HAI CHATHE KE ANDAR"

DON'T KNOW HOW I SLIPPED INSIDE HER UMBRELLA WITH HER. Her friend , Ashwina was constantly looking at me and her. I held the umbrella for her this time as said by Rounak and covered her whole under the umbrella without caring for myself. At the main gate of the campus, there had filled a big puddle of water crossing which was a parkour. Due to this, me and her were waiting for the crowd to go, It was me, her, Arpan and Misbah along with us waiting for the crowd to go.

While, we were waiting, her strand of hair got struck into the umbrella strap! I got the hair strand free from it. I was so much scared of touching her hair but I DID THAT !

When the crowd had gone and t he rain kinda stopped, we both were moving out of the main gate doing that parkour. I said to her, "Agar gir jaunga toh bacha lena". Somehow , we passed the parkour and started walking together alone with the umbrella closed. When we reached her pool car, she was not taking her umbrella back and said "Tum lejao , tum bhig jaoge baarish me" I constantly declined her because it wasn't raining and I was kinda scared of telling my mom whose umbrella it was. I kept declining but she kept giving me. But at the end, she took her umbrella and went into the bus.

https://youtu.be/p2zvYS89nTY?si=d_C158pF-x8C_xXT

What Rounak sent me after the incident.
THAT DAY I WAS SOO MUCH EXCITED , I was walking so happily and dancingly MANN!.

One day again, it was raining really heavily, she took me under her umbrella. And just outside the school gate, her Driver Uncle was waiting for her with his umbrella. She gave me her umbrella to go back home.

THE FIRST HANDSHAKE (August 02, 2024),

She was going to Ranchi for a week. That means, I couldn't meet or even see her for the next 7 days. So on the last day, before bidding her a bye, I involuntarily did a handshake from her. But that handshake! IT was so soft and comforting to feel her hand.

THE UNOFFICIAL GROUP (August 21st, 2024),

A therapy session had taken place on this date, and I was soo fortunate to miss it this time too.

I had created a "XII A UNOFFICIAL GROUP" for the purpose of sharing the day's work on that group because some of the teachers like Chemistry Sir (Zahid Sir) Used to teach students even when only 2 3 students had come to the school. Though, my personal reason was to be in a group where its just me and her the admin but later the group broke because of other students chaos.

(August 02 2024 – August 09 2024) –

Since, she was in Ranchi, I planned to not to go to the school until she comes back. But Rounak said that if we don't go to school, her friend, Ashwina will tell her and hence it will become obvious that I was coming to school only for her. So, we didn't take t he whole week off . Rather only a few days we went to school.

The days I went to school, I always texted her just after coming back from School and used to share what happened on the day and even offered her the day's work.

On a Friday, she asked me if I was going to school the next day because she thought that she'll get her ID Card that day. Though, Me and Rounak never go to school on Saturdays, but I forced Rounak to come with me on the day. We did come on the day. Her friend, Ashwina too didn't come to school that day. The whole day, I was teased by classes with “Wo toh nahi aayi? Phir tu kyu aya” , and Rounak constantly told them “Uska ID Card lene ke liye aya hai”. Somehow , the day ended, it was honestly really boring without her. After getting back home , Idk how I got the courage to say to her this “Boring day it was”.

When she came back to school after the school, she was hugging her friends. Yeah, just fake imaginations but I too was soo much feeling like hugging and greeting her.

Whenever she texted, it felt soo much better and relaxing.
She used to say that I looked like Young Shawn Mendes.

It was a Periodic Test of Chemistry; my seat was assigned in 11B and hers in 11A. It was already raining on that day, I reached there a bit late, so she had already gone inside her seating classroom and I was going into mine. 11B was one floor above 11A, from a window? I saw her looking somewhere in the rain and when I waved at her, she waved at me back. Then I went into my classroom, I was soo much thinking of finding some excuses to go into her classroom, like taking my Reference book, copy... I was pressurizing my brain soo much to think of some excuse to go into her class and see her and yeah without making it obvious. But I couldn’t think of any excuse to go into her class. But when the test was about to start, just before that I went into her classroom. I saw her 😭. She looked so cute just like a princess. I waved at her while coming inside, sat at some bench near her and asked her as an excuse “Aur koii nahi hai iss classroom me?”. Sat there for a few minutes, then before leaving I made a handshake with her and wished her “All the best” and then I came back into my classroom giggling like if I had completed a milestone.

SEPTEMBER 2024,

One day, she had to go ask the dance teacher about teachers day planning, Her friend Ashwina was busy, so she asked me "Tum chaloge?". OBVIOUSLY!!!! I WANT TO!. I went with her out, saw two kids hugging in the ground.. I started imagining when us.
Then we reached that Dance Teacher’s room. She was talking with the sir inside, I was outside. I kinda peaked what was happening inside. The Sir saw me, and shouted “EI! Foreigner ta ke?”. I went inside, sir started asking me Questions, where I lived, and etc etc. There was sitting one of my friends (Saptak). He was soo excited to see me walking alone with her that he took me to a corner and was excited “TU USKE SATH AKELE KESE AYA!!!” , “Wo puchi...”.
After this, I went back to my class with her happily!!!.

One random day, after the Chemistry Lab (We had to wear Lab Coats for Chemistry Lab Activities), inside the classroom.. I really didnt want to fold my lab coat.. And she was inside the class room. I just randomly asked her if she can do that for me. SHE ACCEPTED MY WISH! And folded it for me the whole lab coat perfectly!. My friend Ayush, "Tu usse lab coat fold karwane laga?". I was giggilng and smiling soo hardd! THEN THEN THEN! I NEVER REOPENED HER FOLDED LAB COAT UNTIL MY CLASS 12th BOARD PRACTICAL EXAMINATIONS!!!. I always avoided unfolding her folded lab coat for me.

HER TOUCH (September 05) -

It was a teacher's day, I seriously feeling so much weak the last day. But somehow, I managed my fever and all the circumstances and came to the school to see her.

And as every day, everything was going great but then , I started having a little fever and my face started turning red (According to her). She touched my forehead to see measure my temperature… but that touch of a few seconds… Man, that was so relaxing and healing. I seriously felt like I was healing on my own. I went back home and my fever had seriously got serious. She texted me on Instagram if I was doing good or not then she suggested me to sleep. So I did.

SEPTEMBER 25th, 2024,

It was her birthday and I wanted to give her something without letting my parents know that I was gifting someone that too a girl something. So, on the day , early morning before leaving for school. I walked a mile to see for some shops , if I could find something for her. But since, I didn't know what she really liked I was so much confused. I tried knowing what she really likes in the previous days but couldn't really know what she would like for her birthday. After walking a mile, when I realized that I wont be able to find anything for her. I came to the school early hoping to find something. When I reached the school campus, I started roaming around the campus to find some shop. Luckily, found one. I still couldn't decide what I should take so I took a "Cadbury Dairy Milk Nuts" , or something similar. I put the chocolate in my pocket and I saw her going into the school from a distance, so I rushed to reach the school. It was a English Periodic test on the day. I went into our assigned classroom. There , she was sitting alone revising her notes, I greeted her "Happy Birthday", she thanked me and I gave her the chocolate.

After receiving the chocolate, she put her head down on the table, I couldn't understand if she was blushing or if .. idk?

After the test was over, she was discussing about the questions on the paper with everyone. I was standing beside her, she was speaking but I soo muchhhh felt like kissing her palm. I would've almost done that but controlled my urges and succeeded.

The day was seriously really awesome. Just After reaching back home, we started having conversation about our next exam and other random stuffs on WhatsApp. That was the first time when I tried saying something flirty. I said to her "Mirror me dekho yehi billi dikhegi" , the conversation went silent for a few seconds but I knew that she didn't take it in negative and then we started having discussions on other topics.

SEPTEMBER 29th 2024,

We were randomly discussing on her name's meaning . In the middle of that,

A: Divya means "Divine" ~ ChadGPT
A: Aur wo toh tum pahle se ho, no doubt
D: Sticker Caption "Ab mai itna bhi kuch khas nahi"
D: Bas bas ho gaya

TEASES (August, September, October),

Everyady, I was teased by her name. My friends, Abhi, Misbah, Saptak, Adrish came to my classroom in the lunch break and used to start taking her names, to increase my heart beat. They used to take the name of the lunch that she had brought on the day and sometimes used to directly call her name. I really used to feel scared what if she heard them all and someday took her pink bottle and hit me with it or slapped me on my cheek … though I kinda loved being teased..

Even in CS Labs, I always used to find my seat just beside her (obviously intentionally). Students from the back used to go like "Ankit thora side hut , dikh nahi raha" and on my other side students used to intentionally sit to push me towards her.

Every evening after getting off from PW, I started texting her “Kal school jaa ri ho?” as an excuse to talk to her and keep our everyday talking streak alive. It felt soo good to text her “Kal school jaa raho ho?” , and the excitement to go to the school next day. Beautiful and butterflies days.

One day, after getting off from school. Me, Her and her friend (Ashwina) were walking together towards her pool cars. Her friend asked me, if I was coming to school the next day, I replied “Agar ye aa rahi hogi toh ajaunga” . Here ye means “her – DivyA”. Her friend replied with “You two are very obvious” Then she got back into her bus. It became really awkward for both of us, So we were silent the whole time.

HER BIRTHDAY INVITE (September 30th , 2024),

The whole class 11 A had gone to the Math Lab for checking their Math Periodic Test result, there at the door , she asked me “Tum aur Rounak kya hangout ke liye kahi bhi jaate ho?”, I said “yeah, kabhi kabar” , then she asked me “Mera birthday party hai October 2nd, ko toh.. tum dono aaoge kya?” to which I replied “Rounak se puchna hoga” . We three started finding Rounak. After finding him, we four went into a corner. There Rounak asked “Kya chal rha hai bhai!” it felt suspicious and weird, so out of excitement I kinda slapped him on his cheek. Then, when everything settled, she made her question, Rounak and me said something (IDR). Then we both left and they both too. While going back home, I soo much requested Rounak to go together to her birthday but he kept on saying “Wo tujhe invite karna chahti hai bro, mai toh excuse hu” still I kept requesting him. But , I felt so special that I was invited to my crush’s birthday and possibly the only boy who was invited. But fortunately or unfortunately, I couldn’t go to her birthday.

FIRST Instagram Chat on Instagram (October 05th, 2024),

I was really scared to send her a follow request as I thought that she would think that I have started to stalk her (I know... I was overthinking). But somehow, I sent her a follow request , she obvioulsy accepted and we started having conversations where she started sending me reels and I shared to her about my "Parhai" wale reel section.

DURGA PUJA (October 9th – October 13th 2024),

We had a lot of conversations by this time and I started having kinda feeling that I should now confess to her but I also thought that I should wait for a bit more. I had very crossing thoughts. One day, I asked her out if she would go for Pandal Hoping with me. Just the two of us, but she said that she couldn't do it because her parents probably wont allow her. So, I didn't force her anything.

That year's Durga Puja was truly special for me [melt]

One day, I was having random conversations with one of her friends (Nikita) on Instagram, she told me that DivyA was asking my Instagram ID from her. After seeing this, I kinda smiled and blushed...

One day, she had put up a status of her, going in a car somewhere , she was seriously glowing soo much, I did a flirt "Stars bhi tumse jealous feel karte honge 😵" to which she replied "Kya chal raha hai ye 🧐".

OCTOBER 13th 2024,

She texted me "Uninstalled insta.. Vaha msg mat karna" . Then I replied with "Ah! Theek hai" "Iska matlab instagram ka existence ab mere phone me matter nahi karta"
D: Uninstalled insta... vaha msg mat karna
A: Ah! Theek hai
A: Iska matlab Instagram ka existence ab mere phone me matter nahi karta
D: 😂
A: Mene bhi kar diya
D: Lol

THE CONFESSION DAY (OCTOBER 22ND, 2024),

Today, October 22nd, 2024. I woke up with a bit confusion of confessing to her. I went to school. When I reached to the school, she arrived after a certain minute. She waved at me and I did the same as always. After a while, we went to our classroom. In the classroom, when it was just me and her alone, I was talking on random topics to muster up the courage and confess to her but unfortunately, I couldn't. She was showing me her smartwatch wallpaper which she had set of a moon on the day she was born. Suddenly, a boy came into the class. I felt really disturbed. We both went silent. After a while, she went out of the classroom. One of my friends (Ayush) who had entered the class a bit earlier, said me to go out and confess but I denied him. She came back into the class after a few seconds. I stayed in the class. But then, my friends from other sections entered (Abhi, Saptak, Adrish, Misbah). They were enthusiastic of knowing if I finally did it or not. One of them (Abhi) gave me a kismi chocolate.

When the assembly was going on, I was constantly thinking of her and how to confess.

At the first or second period, I talked to one of her friends (Ashwina) She and the whole class already knew that I had a crush on her. She suggested me how I can approach the situation.

At the lunch break, those friends again entered into the class. They started to tease me by calling out her name loudly. She heard everything. The moment was really hard for me as I didn't know how would she react. In fact I was going to confess on the same day which tensed me up. They started to write my name and hers along with a heart in the middle of our name. They made a lot of scary incidents. After the lunch break was over, they went back to their classes. I was tensed how she would be feeling after it all happened. I asked her friend regarding this but she said that she was normal and I needed not to worry. Despite this, I was scared a lot. She had gone for her Math Olympiad (The reason she had come to school, else she wouldn’t have because she didn’t know that I was going to confess).

When it was a physics practical class, I asked her same friend everything about her and also shared some of my experiences with her. This went really long.

After the physics practical was almost over, my friends came to me and asked me how's everything going. Since, I needed no more issue, I lied to them that she got frustrated over me and asked me not to talk anymore. They went really sad after this and started blaming each other.

In the classroom, she came after her math Olympiad, I tried having conversations, she was replying positively too.

It was the last period, Library. There was no progress at all. I had conversations with her and she was laughing. After the period was over, we went back to our classes. After the school was over, I asked her friend to somehow try to stop her. She even stopped her and I was standing behind them. But there too I failed mustering up the courage. After we got off the school I wasn't walking with my usual friends but I was walking with her and her friend was trying to find a moment for us when I could speak to her. After when we reached her friend's pool car, her friend got into it. Leaving us two alone. After walking for a while, I said "Divya, tumko pata hai? Mujhe August se tumpar crush hai" she turned her face and eyes towards me and laughingly said “Pata hai mujhe”. I got nervous so I went silent. She went silent too after this. I doubted, if she already knew then why didn't she block or avoid me. Then she said "Such things are really confusing". After walking to her pool car, she asked what the boys were doing during the lunch break.

After we reached her pool car, she said me "bye" and got into it. Though the bye was very different from the other usual days.

I was walking alone on the road rewinding what happened a few minutes ago. I had confessed, but it didn't feel real. Neither of us texted each of us till 10pm. But then I couldn't resist anymore. I wanted to talk. So, I texted her if she was going to school the next day as an excuse to initiate a conversation. Then, she brought up the topic about the day.

[10/22/2024, 10:08 PM] Divya: Hey
[10/22/2024, 10:08 PM] Ankit: ?
[10/22/2024, 10:09 PM] Divya: About today.. wasn't trying to make it awkward
[10/22/2024, 10:09 PM] Ankit: Ummm
[10/22/2024, 10:10 PM] Ankit: Me khud nervous feel kar rha tha
[10/22/2024, 10:10 PM] Divya: Laga nahi tha bologe
[10/22/2024, 10:11 PM] Ankit: Idk, bol diya ab
[10/22/2024, 10:12 PM] Divya: Achaa
[10/22/2024, 10:12 PM] Ankit: Kuch problem hogya kya?
[10/22/2024, 10:12 PM] Divya: Nahi nahi
[10/22/2024, 10:12 PM] Ankit: In case agar hua ho toh ....
[10/22/2024, 10:13 PM] Divya: Thik hai
[10/22/2024, 10:13 PM] Divya: Mai nahi bol pai
[10/22/2024, 10:13 PM] Divya: 😜
[10/22/2024, 10:14 PM] Ankit: First time hai na isliye 😂
[10/22/2024, 10:14 PM] Ankit: Bolna tha kuch?
[10/22/2024, 10:14 PM] Divya: Same thing ig
[10/22/2024, 10:14 PM] Divya: 🙃
[10/22/2024, 10:15 PM] Ankit: Arre sahi me? 😂
[10/22/2024, 10:15 PM] Divya: Lets Laugh it out
[10/22/2024, 10:15 PM] Divya: 😂

I felt amazing after this conversation. The fact that she had feelings for me too was something I never expected.

Today was truly special, filled with so many emotions. My heart was racing the whole time, and my stomach felt like it had butterflies. I still couldn't believe that the girl I had a crush on for so long actually felt the same way about me.

October 23rd -

School had planned for a trip to Indian Museum on October 30th,

DivyA: Yo… Trip
Ankit:?
DivyA: Class grp check karo
Ankit: Ah
Ankit: Dekhunga jana hai ki nahi
DivyA: Ur wish 👍
Ankit: Tum jaa rahi ho toh?
DivyA: Yup
Ankit: Jaa rha hu tab mai bhi 😂
DivyA: 😂

October 23rd to October 27th –

Schools had been closed due to heavy rains during this period. Online Classes started taking place for the compensation. So yeah, couldn't meet her in person just after our confession. Due to this fking rain. But in online classes, whenever she opened her camera sometimes, gosh she looked extremely cute. I wasn't been able to believe that she is the same girl whom I confessed to and she had the same feelings for me as well. We had normal chats, nothing very serious, nothing very romantic. Just usual like we used to.

INDIAN MUSEUM TRIP (October 30th 2024) –

Our school had planned a trip to Indian Museum on this date. Yeah, where she is going, I am going as well. The whole class boarded the bus , I sat at the seat behind her obviously. There were three seats. She was sitting towards the window. But unfortunately, I had gotten the middle seats. So, she changed her window seat to same as mine middle seat but in the front seats.

When we reached at the museum, boys and girls group had been differentiated. So yeah, we both had separated with our class gender groups. Though, whenever we had a glance of each other, we always looked into each other's eyes and blushed.

Once the trip was over, we all got back into our buses. Again the same seats we had occupied. The bus started moving. This time, we both took the window seat for ourselves. Her Window was closed. She was trying to open it, I supported her from the back in opening the window. That day, it was the first time when I had seen her face and her hair off braids with open hair. Broo, SHE WAS LOOKING GORGEOUSLY SOO ADORABLE DUDE. Wanted to stare her the whole time.

The trip was finally over, and we all got back off the buses and went to our classes. But then I suddenly remembered if I had my ID Card and Prefect Badge with me and reminded her of the same. But unfortunately, her belongings had already slipped off her pocket and fallen on the Bus Seat which she was sitting on. She ran to one of our teachers for her belongings where everyone else was having their refreshments after the trip. After she told the sir, she came back into the class all worried. And had her head on the bench, I was behind her watching her but from the behind, A boy shouted (Shrijit) “Ankit kya kardiya DivyA ka, ki wo pareshan hogayi”, the moment that boy ended speaking, she shouted “TUM CHUP CHAP RAHO TOH” and something something. Then after a few minutes, she went outside again waiting for sir to bring back her things. I was sitting in the classroom worried for her. My friend Rounak , asked me to go outside and comfort her. But I wasn’t able to gather the courage to do that because comforting her in alone felt difficult to me. But somehow, I managed myself to go out and stand with her. We both started waiting for her belongings by the teacher. After a few more minutes, she came back into the school with her belongings, she ran towards her items. She took back those items from sir and came back. While coming, she showed me the things that she had lost and got back. Behind her two boys (Tuhin and Souryaditya) were coming from somewhere. Since, the whole class already knew what we both have, both of them started shouting “Awwww”. We both went into the classroom, packed our bags and ended our day.

NOVEMBER 12th 2024,

Exactly at 12AM , she wished me my birthday. Then we started having casual conversation, but then I thought of saying something flirty. “Apne wish kar diya, ab toh aaj ka day aapke tarah khubsurat hi jayega” then she said “Agar tumhara birthday nahi hota toh maarti mai tumko” I seriously got scared if she would seriously start hating me now or something something but nothing happened. And everything went smoothly.

In return of my birthday, I gave her a “Kisses Moments” box. She was denying but somehow I managed to give her that.
SHE LITERALLY GAVE ME THE BEST THING THAT SHE COULD GIVE ME! She gave me a duck keychain made by only her. I always kept it safe and never used it to avoid getting damaged or losing it. I still have it safe in my heart and physically.

NOVEMBER 13th 2024,

She had made a physics project by her own. But unfortunately the project had flopped. When we came back into our classroom from the Physics Lab. She was soo much disappointed that she had her head down on the bench. I was sitting next to her just waiting when she would finally get her head up and talk to me and she could feel better by doing it.

One day in between, contests were being held for annual sports day in our school. I took part in two games, 100 m Race and 200 m Race. Yeah, placed 4th in both the games. I was heavily tired after the race. Like, begging for water inside but there was no water in our surrounding (We were in the ground). I was sitting in a shade, with my whole face being red. She showed her concern, and started asking everyone if they have a bottle of water. When she didn’t get one, she ran to the classroom to get one for me.

It was an Annual Sports Day. I, her and her friend (Ashwina) had gone to the school. We three just roamed around the classes in the whole school. As the whole school was just empty and everyone else was in the grounds. There we sat in one of the classes, and started talking on random things. In that moment, we slipped our chance to get a photo of US ALONE. We clicked three such photos of us alone. There came a moment when Ashwina had gone with her mother back home. And it was just the two of us alone in the classroom. We clicked some more photos and us too went back home after that.

After this photo, I legit sometimes started waking up 4AM 5AM early in the morning and the first thing I remembered was this photo of us together, I legit started seeing this photo just after waking up and used to smile so hard.

DECEMBER 2024,

It was winters and we had to wear hoodies to the school. One random day, I noticed her hoodie, it was written “Hot Body Cool Soul”. Then I randomly checked mine! MINE WAS THE SAME TOO but yeah we had different sizes. I told her about this. Then we started checking for many people nobody had the same tag. We kinda felt special through this for each other like we are in team!
Though my hoodie felt short for me and I wanted to get a new one. I went to a shop to get it but no hoodie had the same tag again. So... I just rejected every hoodie and came out empty handed. Accepted that previous same tag short hoodie and wore that every day to the school to have something in common between us.

This month was the beginning of personal and late-night chats on Instagram when we started talking from 11PM to 2AM and even 3AM. We both shared each other random reels from Instagram and had conversations majorly. I sometimes used to send her some expressive posts / reels like “Send this to the most prettiest girl you ever know” and similar thigns to her with a spam of many other reels and used to say Pointing out that expressive reel, “Galti se send hogya". I was just trying to the waters for her.

She was in her maternal house in Ranchi and used to sleep alone, and I used to scare her from "Rangeen Bhootni."

I used to stay up nights till 3 or 4AM because of which she gave me a nickname like "Ullu" because owls dont sleep at night and so do I which is why, she gave me this nickname. At first I really didn't like this name . Obviously yeah, I gave her such a good nickname like "Divine" and she calling me "Ullu" not even "owl" but later I got habituated with this and eventually started loving this name. I gave her nicknames like "Cutiepie", "CuDiePie (CDP)" and "Divine"

Everyone in the class had known that I had a crush on her, but nobody knew that she too had on me. How did everyone know? Because it spread like fire in the classroom from one of my friends Rounak. Many students from all the four sections used to tease me with "DivyA Narayan kesi hai?".

Everyone had 99% assumption that we two are dating. Though we were emotionally accepting but never said it explicitly to avoid awkwardness. We had just confessed our feelings to each other but never gave this relationship a tag (till this date).

JANUARY 2025,

On January 2nd, I shared a reel with her to test the waters, whether she is actually ready to move things forward or not. The reel said "Everyone in the class knows we are dating" though it was kinda true but not official between us. I shared this to her,

DivyA: Wt...
DivyA: R we?

(I got kind of shocked and scared how to manage this situation)

Ankit: R we?
DivyA: Nooooo
Ankit: Better

Somehow the situation was managed.

One random day in school, at the lunch break, I was randomly taking batches of everyone inside my class who had it and everyones ID Card too. I started wearing those badges and ID Cards and obviously hers tooo! I wore all the ID Cards (like 10 or something). Her friend Ashwina said "Jiska bhi ID Card tere dil ke paas hoga wo actual me bhi tere dil ke sabse pass hai". I then checked the ID Card closest to my heart! IT WAS ACTUALLY HERS! IT WAS ACTUALLY HERS!!!. The moment I saw that! I turned the ID Card down and started blushing!

On January 22nd, it was the first time when she said me “I lovee youu” but not directly but rather “Blabliblu” which I didnt understand at that time what she meant and so ignored it. OBVIOUSLY ! I THOUGHT IT WAS SOME TYPO!.

Then came the farewell season for our Class 12 Seniors (2024 – 2025). Only House council members and the people who were managing were supposed to come to the farewell. She took part in Dance and I had no clue what to do. Then she said “Present rehna bas” . This line melted me then I took whatever I was getting. Like, I took the “Chair Management” Because.. Why not even I wanted to see her... Umm.

On the day of farewell, she got a haircut last day which she didnt like. Then the next day when she came to the school in that new look. Gosh, she looked extremely gorgeous and melting. Just wanted to see her the whole day but .. yeah, my duties for managing the chair took me away and she went to practice her dance. The farewell was on the second half of the day.
I tried finding excuses to take my way to her.

I was just merely walking with one of my friends Adrish (School Discipline Captain). We randomly came across where she was doing her practice and I didnt realize. He said “Itni sundar larki kon hai” , Then my focus went on the girl he was talking about. IT WAS HER, SHE ACTUALLY LOOKED SO PRETTY. That friend again said “oh, sorry sorry, pata nahi tha teri bandi hai”.

After a few time, I gathered my courage and went to see her (Reference: I was really scared of seeing her dance, because it didn’t feel right to me). There was on her break from dancing. I went to her and she started clipping a clip on my head . That moment felt so pretty and cute to me. She gave her mobile phone to keep it safe (I knew her password was 2529 BUT DIDNT UNLOCK AND CHECK ANYTHING)

Then after a few hours, the farewell finally began. Her group started dancing.... My focus remained so hard that I saw only one girl dancing, and it was her.

When her dance ended. I left everything that I was doing, and went to her, I said to her that she was looking really pretty and what I saw. We stood watching other people dancing together till the end. Then a moment came, where I intentionally put my hand on her back shoulder,, umm sorry.

The farewell ended and we all moved out of the school. There we clicked our second photo of us.

THE ICONIC “Seedha Chalo” (February 07th, 2025),

I dont know what happened to me on this date.... Before coming to school, I kept my hands inside the hoodie pockets to keep them warm. I had planned to hold her hands just once on this date. While going to our classes in the morning time, I gave her my hand with a hell lot of courage, but she said “Seedha Chalo”. I asked her again, but again the same reply. I IMMENSELY STARTED FEELING SO AWKWARD AND EMBARASSED that accidentally I pulled her bag up and asked her “Ye toh kar sakta hu?” she was like “haa haa kar sakte ho.”

Every morning, after coming to school, before entering it, we started going to a lake nearby to watch the ducks. It was a lot of people, me , her, her friend, small kids. But as time passed , it got just me and her who used to go to that lake every morning. I used to come early, So I went there to the lake, and used to wait for her to come. Whenever she came, I saw her, but I was scared to show her how wide my smile was after seeing her. Which is why I didn't turn towards her for the first few seconds until I had control over my smile. Later, that place became a spot to seperate those little kids and her so we both could have times for each other alone.

THE BEST “Don’t Touch” (February 09th, 2025),

We were in Chemistry lab, everyone was having some sort of things and everyone was busy. I tried using this chance. While everyone’s eyes were away, I called her close to me “idhar aao” , she did then.... I tried caressing her hair, I tried putting her strand of hair on her face above her ear. I did, but the strand fell down, I again tried doing it. But she pushed back and said “Dont Touch.” I mean okay, I was giggling and blushing at least I did it!!!

FEBRUARY 2025,

It was our Class 11th exams going on. We had gotten our seats in Class 12th A. Every morning, we used to walk back to our classes, but we always took the longest path to the alloted classes for having more minutes for ourselves. While walking, I always felt like holding her hand because her ands were really close to mine. But I somehow resisted doing it because it felt scary. We used to come into the classroom alone sitting inside the classroom together. I always slipped my book to her arranged seat and sat with her. We kinda got busy with our friends that after that moment, we couldn’t even have eye contacts on each other. Whenever we did, we just smiled at each other and got back to our friends.

FEBRUARY 02, 2025 (EXPRESSIVE CHATS),

It was a random school day , I always used to sit just behind her seat. Our Physics Sir (Tamal Sir) came and started having his GST Class (Relationship talks). Sir was randomly asking all the boys and girls about their type. Sir asked her, she didnt say anything, she was just blushing and brushed him off. Then the sir asked me about my type. Obviously,,, I cant tell him that my type is already sitting in the bench in front of me... I just replied "She should be a girl, should be alive thats it".. Yeah, shitty answer but there was nothing to say. Sir just wanted to know what this generation's type is. But after a few minutes, we both went out for something. While we were coming back, we two were alone and in the corridors everything was empty.... She was going straight but I wanted to have a little more walk and alone time with her. So, I grabbed both of her shoulder lightly (INVOLUNTARILY!) and changed her direction to a long cut. She started blushing/crying "itna lamba rasta kyu", I said "Chalo na jyada chlte hai". We both were blushing and laughing the whole time before coming into the classroom.

It was a random evening talk we were having. I suddenly initiated a conversation like "Do you remember the day when we were under the same umbrella?". After this! She started expressing how she felt, I started expressing how I felt.
We started sharing each other romantic and expressive posts / reels on Instagram.
That day, we chatted from 7PM till 2 AM. It was the longest ever chat between the two of us.

Felt really grateful for finally it happened which I had been longing for for so long. She never really expressed her feelings, like how she feels around me, what she thinks of me. NEVER DID THAT. But after this date, she finally opened up and started expressing herself for me.

FEBRUARY 16, 2025 (LABELLING),

It was a random evening talk, we we were chatting from 3PM to 5PM like we always used to. However this time, she said that she didnt have a boyfriend and nor she has one. I was a little confused.... So, I asked her out this time. "Aaj toh clear kar hi do, whats between us."

A: Aaj toh clear kar hi do, whats between us
D: Pahle tum batao, am I your girlfriend?
A: No no, ladies first, tell me
A: Am I your boyfriend?
D: Idk, harkat wesi hi hain..
A: HA YA NA bolo
D: Ha...?
A: Okay..
D: Kuch difference nahi lag rha label karne ke baad bhi
A: Sahi me 🤣

It really didnt feel any difference after finally labelling our relationship because we both knew what we were even before labelling it.

MARCH 2025,

It was an exam day and I was a bit late before coming to school and she was already sitting there out of the school with a friend (Sayani). I had almost reached her, then heard her "Ankit Kidhar hai reh gya". This made me smile so harddd!!!!. That I tried controlling my smile before greeting her.
After we three met , we started moving inside the class but then one of my friends (Adrish), asked me my roll number, I was like... “Faiv..... nahi!!! 17”. 5 was her roll number and I had accidentally shouted hers. She and me looked into each other eyes and started smiling and blushing.

It was March 13 and our exam day. On this date, she first time touched my cheek and put colors on my face (HOLI). I did the same..... I was walking back home, she came from behind having colors in her hand shouting “ANKITTTT!!!” , I started running after seeing colors in her hand but after a few minutes, I stopped and colors from her hand. This was the third time when we got a photo of ourselves.

March 17th, was the date when we finally started having Video Calls. It was the first time I could finally stare at her face freely. At first , we both were shy to look at each other or even stare , but with constant looking at each other, we finally started staring got more comfortable looking at each other for a very long period of time.

APRIL 2025,

Finally the month when we started having some physical connections.

On April 02nd, we came to the school at the same time as always . We went inside the school together and took the long route for going into the classroom. I was walking a bit faster than her, so she said “Aage hi bhaag jao tum”, to which I replied “Ehh! Ye hath pakro toh” with giving my hand to her for holding it. I DONT KNOW HOW I GOT SOO MUCH COURAGE TO DO THIS ! BUT IT HAPPENED INVOLUNTARILY. BUT SHE TOO! HELD MY HANDDDD. HER HANDS WERE SO SOFT,CUTE AND SMALL MANN! I NEVER WANTED TO LET GO OF HER Hand. Before walking up the stairs, she did some “tinglings” on my shoulders. THAT GAVE SOO MUCH BUTTERFLIES TO ME!. While we were going up the stairs, we felt some other studnets coming from somewhere. She was letting go of her hands, but I still held tight and didnt let her leave my hand. But after a while, I let off our hands. THe whole pathway from there till our classroom was soo much butterflies and excitement.

That day on, almost every day, we took that long route and always held hands for a couple of days.

On the same date, we chose our benches. I had pre planned that I will take the bench just behind her and I did. In the middle of the day, my leg accidentally touched hers under the bench. Without thinking anything twice, I grabbed her leg with both of my legs and started pulling them as much as I could. Pulling her legs, made me soo much feel like we were together and we are always holding each other tight.

On April 09th, we were walking together, while going , she did something to which I grabbed her to the corner of a wall (In front of 11A and Comp lab) and said “Do na Do na” (asking for a cheek kiss), SHE DID GIVE ME A KISS ON MY CHEEK!

I didnt touch that spot the whole day just to avoid rubbing that kiss off my cheek.

MAY 2025,

Our Summer Vacations were about to start and we were very much scared how we would manage without seeing or being around each other for the next 60 days. It was kinda scary and impatient but eventually we both managed to go through this situation by chatting with each other everyday every night , lovingg each other and caring each other.

We both had a lot of spicy imaginations day and night just to feel each others presence just randomly but it felt kinda good to talk about it.

THE FIRST KISS (June 24th, 2025),

Our school finally reopened after sixty day summer vacation. And since we had imagined a lot of things together in the vacations of having together something..... On this day, one incident kinda finally got true.

We both came early together as always. We legit had no plan of doing anything together in the classroom. But....
After coming into the classroom, she placed her bag, I placed mine and I sat down on my seat. She went towards the classroom decoration board to make things tidy. But then I really urged to kiss her. So... I went towards her saying “Ruko mai help karta hu”, I went there, Stood close to her and said “DivyA, idhar aao, koi nahi hai”. (MY HEART WAS BEATING REALLY FAST!!!!)
She came close to me, we both had papers in our hand but then I went even closer to her, then our lips touched and started soaking into each other. WE FINALLY HAD OUR FIRST KISS!
We held in that position for like 3 seconds! Then we retreated scared that someone would come. But nobody did, then I went for “phir se phir se”, again one kiss! Again for 3 seconds. Then retreated then still nobody came, we went for again one kiss! For again 3 seconds!. Then we retreated then a few seconds later some people came and we stopped kissing. We legit had 3 kisses each for 3 seconds. DAmn, that was the first time I had a kiss with a girl, Fk that was soo amazing , didn’t feel like it was real! Seriously! Wanted to go for more but people came inside the classroom. Afterwards, we got into our seats but! Whenever we looked at each other, WE SMILED SO HARD AND COULDN’T CONTROL IT! And the butterflies inside us! Fk they were at their peak! The whole school day we were smiling laughing when we looked at each other.

SECOND LIP KISS (July 1st , 2025),

As always we came into our classroom early. We legit had no plan of kissing this day also but... things happened...
It was raining outside, we both had our umbrellas on before entering our school. It was raining pretty good outside even the weather was really romantic. Inside our school, we put our umbrellas at the same spot where we kissed the first time, but I held the camera in my right hand, held her back in my left hand, covered ourselves under the umbrella and we both kissed each other for a long this time. The moment felt sooo good mann! I wished we could spend the whole day in the same position but scared somebody would come by , we stopped and got back to our places...

THIRD LIP KISS (July 09th, 2025),

This time, it was the longest lip kiss we haddd! Like as always we came early to school then inside the classroom, but this time, we held on each other for like 10 minutes with breaks and kisses and holding each other. And, I lifted her on my waist ...

GOT CAUGHT DURING A LIP KISS (July 25th, 2025),

It was kinda raining and I was a bit late for school. She went inside the school and I hadnt still reached. I came into the class like 5 minutes later, kinda wet. But we already had wasted our 5 minutes and didn't want waste anymore, we both again kissed each other but this time, while we were kissing, her friend, Ashwina showed up in the classroom. She saw us kissing! LEGIT WHILE KISSING then she said "Oh sorry" , placed her bag in her seat and went outside the room. I was smiling and laughing but she was kinda tensed , she walked outside around that friend to console everything up.

These two whole months, we kept on kissing each other every morning before everyone arrived in the classroom. Or maybe, the whole year we did this. We always thought of not doing it anymore as we both were scared of being caught by any random person, but we could never resist and kept on kissing each other and loving each other.

UNDER THE UMBRELLA (August 01st, 2025),

It was raining really heavy at the time of dispersal of the school. I brought my umbrella and she did too. Obviously, to get inside her umbrella, I didnt open mine. We were off the school getting to our homes and she was going to her bus, I was holding the umbrella , she was walking beside me under the umbrella. It was raining so bad that the distance between us inside the umbrella was making us wet (DUE TO RAIN). So.. I held her other shoulder, pulled her close to me, and didn't let go of my hand. The whole time my hands were on her other shoulder feeling them, enjoying them. Then , I also tried putting my hand on her waist... Um yeah..? But back to her shoulder. A boy was doing something, he saw and said "Oh aap dono couples ho, go go". But then unfortunately, her bus came and we had to go different ways alone.

RAINS IN SCHOOL HAVE ALWAYS HAD A BEAUTIFUL MOMENT OF US TOGETHER

FIRST DURGA PUJA HOPING TOGETHER (IN GROUP) (SEPTEMBER 26th, 2025),

It was finally the Durga Puja and the vacations from school had just started. Though, We couldn't plan a durga puja hoping alone together but we still found moments to be together.

She planned to go to Durga Puja with her friends. Obviously, she told me about this, so I planned my outing according to her plans just to meet her in the mid-day.

She came out, met her friends and started roaming. I came out, met my friends, and started roaming with my friends (Rounak and Vedant). But my constant focus was on her! TO MEET HER! Everytime I was checking her location where she was. In the middle of the day, I stopped roaming and stood somewhere and started waiting for her because she was very near to me. I waited in Deshapriya Park for like 3 hours talking with my friend Rounak to pass the time. When we finally met after 3 hours of waiting, I JUST RAN TOWARDS HER! To finally see her after so much waiting. Got a photo of ourselves there and we started roaming around together. My hands were on her back, we ate ice cream together, had lots of photos and videos together. And at the end of the day, I got a kiss from her on my cheek and ended the day. The day was soo good because we finally met somewhere outside the school. The wait? The wait was totally worth it.

ONE YEAR OF "US" COMPLETED (October 22nd, 2025),

Unfortunately, we couldn't be together on this date as we had taken a off from school. And we were back home for studies (JEE and Board). Though we revisited the moments of October 22nd, 2024 on texts. Cherished the moment together.

NOVEMBER, DECEMBER (2025),

We both were studying for Pre Boards, JEE, practicals and then Boards. We kept chatting together parallelly.

January (2026),

We both were busy with our JEE. Her JEE Date was 21st January 2025, Shift 1 and mine was January 28th, Shift 1.
After this, our focus shifted to Boards.

We had a farewell as well where we all clicked a lot of photos together

THE LAST KISS BEFORE LD (February 10th, 2026),

It was PAT Practical and it was the last day of school. Before bidding bye, we had one last kiss in the school before getting off the school.

February, March, April & May (2026),

Busy with boards and then with all the competitive exams like JEE Mains, VITEEE, BiTSAT, COMEDK, and WBJEE.

THE LAST MEET BEFORE LD (May 27th, 2026),

Since all the competitive exams and boards are over. We all planned to have a last meet up because she too was getting transferred to Chennai. We couldn't make time for ourselves where it's just the two of us. But through this outing we made ourselves some private moments.
Me, her, Ashwina, Aayush, Atulya and lastly Annika had gone for this outing.

I suggested her to ask her mother if I came to pick her up from her house to the outing place (South Mall). She asked her mother and her mother said YES. On that day, I came to her house, booked a cab, took her and went to the mall. We were together alone in the Cab kinda close kinda far from each other because we were scared because of the driver. Still, I found my chance to be close to her. We enjoyed ourselves a lot there at the South Mall. We clicked many photos of us together, ate, played and had a lot of fun. Then it was time to go home. I booked a CAB for only the two of us. Sat inside and went back. This time, I didn't let her stay away from her. I pulled her towards me, and we sat together sticked to each other. Like, yeah, we didn't know when we were going to meet after this last meeting. We reached her house and had to go our ways 😔

June (2026),

She went to Chennai and I was back in Kolkata. We were at Long Distance already.

July (2026),

I came here in Hyderabad, and she went Bhopal (Sehore) for her College, ViT Bhopal. We missed each other for being so far apart.

August (2026),

Finally our colleges started.

FIRST TIME GIFTED HER SOMETHING SPECIAL (September 25th, 2026),

I ordered a top for her from Myntra which She really liked. I had to do a lot of planning because I was a little scared.

TWO YEARS OF "US" TOGETHER (October 22nd, 2026),

TODAY IS THE DATE WHEN FINALLY, OUR RELATIONSHIP GOT 2 YEARS OLD. These two years were truly amazing with her, and I still wish to spend the rest of our lives together, as she is not just a person to me. She is my world. Where not talking a single day feels sad and lonely. Dude, she has always been so pretty and nice to me that I could never imagine a world without her, I always want her all my lives. YES, we did have a lots of fights in between , but we always chose each other in and after the fights. Because it really used to clench our throats after having a rough conversation. We always used to get back to loving each other on the same day, though the effect remained for a bit. But we always got back together and loved each other even more than before. I genuinely want to see her always happy and smiling. Because she is soo "pyari" that I could never take my eyes off her. Her care, her love, her affection, have always been a gem to me, and I have preserved all of them all my life.

#BITM (when she felt she wanted a future only with me)

On exam day, our mwah kiss
